

since satellite radio requires a subscription to listen there can no reason to limit content, including local information.